Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

A letter worthy of printing in an annual for young people preparing to enter society as workers and specialized students and scholars should contain certain words of wisdom and direction. I cannot, however, pass up this opportunity in the first year of a unitary school system and the many problems that you as students, your parents, your teachers and administrative staff have experienced without saying "thanks" for your help and cooperation.

It is my sincere wish that your high school education has not only been a pleasure but will prove very beneficial in life. Somewhere down the road in the future the experiences of this year may help you weather the many trials and tribulations. One thing of which I am sure — the opportunity will come.

In Memory of Charles Crow

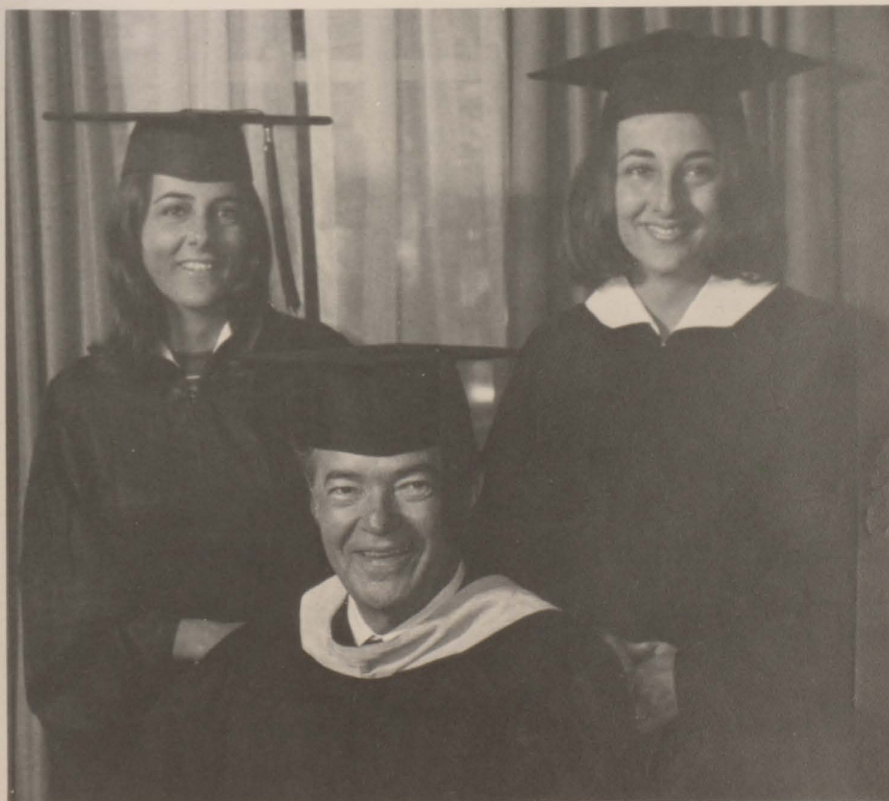

Students Mourn Charles Crow

Editor, The Telegraph: The student body of Southwest Senior High School was deeply saddened by the death of Mr. Charles W. Crow on Nov. 12.

A leader, a teacher, above all a friend, Mr. Crow took pleasure in life and those around him. His humanity and wisdom will remain forever in the hearts and memories of his students, fellow faculty members and friends.

By looking for the beauty in everything, Mr. Crow consistently gave everyone joy and cheerfulness, the rarest of human qualities in our world today. May God keep him and bless his family in their bereavement.

When I grow up I'm gonna be a Senior

With history and English,
physics and math,
A tear here and there and maybe a laugh
The senior's year can be a blast
But everyone knows that it's his last.

I am a junior
And that's pretty big
But I just can't see Taking trig.

We look at life
And smile, at times,
On things of the past
And ill-fated rhymes

We are all so near Yet seem so far
We shed a tear
And reach for a star.

It's unromantic and makes them feel low
And any of them will tell you so;
It's hard and sometimes even a bore
That job of being a sophomore.

We, sincerely hope that you will use this annual as a record of the events of the 1970-1971 school term, and that you have enjoyed viewing these pages as much as we have enjoyed preparing them for you.
